General notes

The Ministry of Labour and Solidarity supervises the operation of the Portuguese system of social protection. The general scheme for employees and self employed workers does not cover civil servants or lawyers and barristers who are covered by special schemes.

The general scheme is administered by the five regional social security centres, responsible for sickness (cash benefits), maternity, unemployment, family benefits and the non-contributory scheme; National Pensions Centre in charge protection coverage in the event of invalidity, old-age and death; National Centre for the Protection against Occupational Risks in charge of protection coverage in the event of an occupational disease.

The individual country notes of the OECD Benefits and Wages (www.oecd.org/social/benefits-and-wages.htm) provide a comprehensive description of characteristics of social programmes (e.g. conditions for receipt, calculation of payment rates, tax treatment of social support, benefit duration, etc.) for the working-age population, including: unemployment insurance and assistance, social assistance, employment-conditional benefits, housing benefits, family benefits, childcare support, and support for sole parent households.

Break in series:

Data for 1990 onwards are based on the new ESSPROS methodology format. Coherent spending series for 1980 onwards at the individual programme level were obtained on basis of information for a few years in the early 1990s for which both historical spending series and information based on the new ESSPROS format were available. For certain programmes and aggregate categories, breaks in series (between 1989 and 1990) were inevitable. In general, programmes from the old ESSPROS format which could not be matched with a figure from the new ESSPROS format were set to “missing” from 1990 onwards; similarly, figures from the new ESSPROS format which could not be matched to a programme from the old methodology were set to “missing” for the period 1980-89.

Code	Title of the programme	Description of the programme and attached notes
1. OLD AGE
620.10.1.1.1.1	General scheme (IGFSS)	The minimum period of membership is 15 years of contributions paid or credited. To be granted a full pension, 40 years of contributions are required. The legal retirement age is 65 for men and women, 60 for unemployed persons and 55 for people in arduous or unhealthy work (specified occupations only). The retirement pension is based on the average monthly remuneration of the ten best years within the last 15. Non-contributory periods credited or taken into consideration are as follows: periods of sickness, maternity, unemployment, military service, compensation for inherent work risks, periods during which jury service is performed, periods spent caring for children, periods in the resistance. Disability pensions are taxable, but the tax regime is not the same as for earnings from work.
620.10.1.1.1.1.0	Enterprises (non means-tested)	Post and telecommunications, Portuguese broadcasting, bus companies, insurance companies.
620.10.1.1.1.1.1	General retirement fund (civil servants, pensioners)	Employees of the "Cofre de Previdencia" had their own retirement pension until 1989. No figures are available.
620.10.1.1.2.1	General scheme (IGFSS)	Data for "Early retirement pension" are included under "Early retirement for labour market reasons".
2. SURVIVORS
620.10.2.1.1.1	General scheme (IGFSS)	Entitled persons are: surviving spouse aged at least 35, divorced spouse who is entitled to alimony, children until the age of 18 (25 or 27 in case of further or higher education), parents' dependant on the deceased (if no spouse or children). The surviving spouse is entitled to 60 per cent of the retirement or invalidity pension which the insured person was receiving or would have been entitled to at the time of death. Children are entitled to 20 (one child), 30 (two) or 40 (three or more) % of pension.
260.10.2.1.2.1	Death grant: General scheme (IGFSS)	As a rule, paid to the same people as the survivor's pension. The grant is six times the average wage calculated for the two best years within the last five.
3. INCAPACITY- RELATED BENEFITS (Disability, Occupational injury and disease, Sickness)
620.10.3.1.1.1	General scheme (IGFSS)	Incapacity for work is recognized if earning capacity is not more than one third of the normal rate in that occupation. The minimum period of affiliation for entitlement is five years of contributions paid or credited (in special cases, after 1 095 days of sickness benefit and subject to endorsement by the medical board). Determining factors for the level of benefits are as follows: number of years' contributions, average monthly earnings of the ten best years within the last fifteen. Non-contributory periods credited or taken into consideration are as follows: periods of sickness, maternity, unemployment, military service, compensation for inherent work risks, periods during which jury service is performed, periods spent caring for children, periods in the resistance. Disability pensions are taxable, but the tax regime is not the same as for earnings from work.
620.10.3.1.1.2	Special social insurance scheme for agricultural activities (IGFSS)	They include some benefit payments which should have been included in "Old age cash benefits" and "Survivors".
620.10.3.1.1.3	Non-contributory scheme and other	Before 1988, data for funeral expenses from the non-contributory scheme were included under funeral expenses from the contributory schemes. Since 1988, the two categories are shown separately. As of 1987, funeral expenses managed by IGFSS include those to agricultural workers.
620.10.3.1.1.4	specific schemes (IGFSS)
620.20.3.1.3.1	Labour accidents to private sector (insurance companies)	Compulsory private insurance for employees financed by the employers and compulsory private insurance for the self-employed.
