Notes:

1. The statistical data for Israel are supplied by and under the responsibility of the relevant Israeli authorities or third party. The use of such data by the OECD is without prejudice to the status of the Golan Heights, East Jerusalem and Israeli settlements in the West Bank under the terms of international law.
2. Footnote by Turkey: The information in this document with reference to “Cyprus” relates to the southern part of the Island. There is no single authority representing both Turkish and Greek Cypriot people on the Island. Turkey recognizes the Turkish Republic of Northern Cyprus (TRNC). Until a lasting and equitable solution is found within the context of the United Nations, Turkey shall preserve its position concerning the “Cyprus issue”. Footnote by all the European Union Member States of the OECD and the European Union: The Republic of Cyprus is recognised by all members of the United Nations with the exception of Turkey. The information in this document relates to the area under the effective control of the Government of the Republic of Cyprus.
3. From 1 February 2020, after the departure of the United Kingdom, the European Union consists of 27 countries. The aggregates EU28 and EU15, which include the United Kingdom, are retained for any analyses that may require this perspective. The aggregate EU27_2020 excludes FRA, DEU and ITA which are shown separately. See https://ec.europa.eu/eurostat/statistics-explained/index.php/Glossary:EU_enlargements.
4. APEC excludes Papua New Guinea which is not included in the 2021 TiM database.
